

AARPSM Driver Safety Program Tennessee

A listing of some very important DSP websites follow.

These sites contain almost all of the answers to the most frequently asked questions (FAQs).

Virtually everything I know comes from this site - <http://www.aarpvolunteers.com/>. This is referred to as VolNet – and the answers are here.

A second site is <http://aarpdriver.org/> - here an instructor will find a site specific for Tennessee. All of our classes are updated on this site and various other bits of information are also marked on this site.

A third worthwhile site is http://www.aarp.org/home-garden/transportation/driver_safety/. From this site an instructor can find other courses in the area by simply clicking on the object "Locate - Find a Class Room Course Near You." There is other driver related info also on this site.

Here is the site for the DSP Online Store - <http://www.aarpdsp-store.org/volunteers/> You can order name badges, labels, and DSP logo material here- the site is self explanatory and there is even an 800 number if problems arise.

The answers to almost all of DSP questions are contained within these sites, including instructions to direct deposit and using the new Expense Reimbursement Express program.

Make yourself familiar with these sites - it will make your life simpler.
